Re: State of Florida v. Casey M. Anthony

Dear Sgt. Allen:

The purpose of this letter is to be clear about our willingness to fully cooperate with any and all law enforcement agencies regarding the above-referenced matter.

While I cannot compel or advise my client to make any statements that could possibly incriminate her, we are willing to cooperate fully with law enforcement, in the event that law enforcement uncovers certain leads in which my client's involvement can be of beneficial assistance towards the finding of Caylee Anthony.

My office is at your disposal. Should the need arise for immediate contact with my client, please reach me on my cell phone so I can make myself available at any time.

Please bear in mind that our assistance should be used for finding Caylee, and not for prosecuting my client.

Should there be any way we can be of assistance under the aforesaid circumstances, please do not hesitate to contact the firm at the numbers listed below.

Sincerely,

Jose A. Baez, Esq.
